LETTER FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, SATURDAY, May 9.

Glorious Victory—Jos. Lovell's Song—Stupidity Rewarded—Gen. Lee—Hooker's Reputation and Army—Reinforcements—General Intelligence—Interference of Women—Spy Mania—Rumors, &c.

In this congratulatory letter General Lee ends the history of Saturday's very strong battle by the words: I am thankful my all was Hallowed enough to secure the victory." Such a victory is a thing to be grateful for, and to be thankful and reverent for. Such a victory is a thing to be proud of, and to celebrate. Such a victory is a thing to be glad, and to rejoice. Hence, rejoiced at the victory was to be expected.

Particularly at the ladies, whether of the contraband, or of the Southern Confederacy variety. LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

The Tunnel at the Depot.—With the endless job of Depot-digging entirely done, the contractors are now busily engaged in putting down the stone and brick-work, and preparing for the approach of Broadway, between which and the depot an entirely feasible thoroughfare, at the present time, exists. The two carriage and drays ways now constructed are very well arranged, and the tunnel is spacious and well lighted, and will be completed in a few days. The Broadway approach will be finished in a few weeks. The Depot will be ready for the reception of freight in the course of a month, and the passenger accommodations are entirely completed. The whole contract will be finished long before the time specified in the contract, and the work has been executed in a manner highly creditable to the contractors.

Fire.—Yesterday morning, about 2 o'clock, the alarm of fire was given from box No. 11, on Main street, between Fifth and Sixth streets. The fire originated in the rear of the building occupied by Mr. Wm. Hall, as a grocery store, and was discovered by the watchman of the Gas Works, who was passing at the time. The fire was extinguished by the Fire Department, after the destruction of the building in which it originated, and the damage done to the stock of Mr. Hall, which was insured for $1,000 in the Mechanics' Insurance Company. The building was owned by Mr. Wm. Wilson, and was insured for $1,000 in the Mechanics' Insurance Company
